Windhoek, Namibia

At the end of the 19th century valuable commodities such as beer were imported from Europe. The beer brewed or the colder European climate was considered unsuitable for the hot climate in Namibia. This led to the establishment of four local breweries in 1904 namely; Kronen Brauerei (Swakopmund), Omaruru Brewery, Klein Windhoek Brewery and Felsenkeller Brewery (Windhoek).

In 1920 the four breweries were acquired by Messrs Carl List and Rmann Ohlthaver who consolidated them into one to form The South West Breweries.

With the Independence of Namibia in 1990, The South West Breweries changed its name to Namibia Breweries Limited (NBL), as it is known today. Master Brewer Christian Mueller studied for 15 years in Germany and applies craft and dedication to uphold the values of the Reinheitsgebot. It takes 5 weeks of brewing and conditioning before the lager is released for sale with the 100% pure taste of Windhoek.

Windhoek is a full-bodied lager with a high proportion of malt; slightly more bitter than other lagers it pours with a beautiful foam head which makes it so distinctive.
